

G. Thompson's first address in U.S. was delivered in Groton Oct. 1, 1834.

33

1835
Groton 20 July 1835

Wm. Lloyd Garrison Esq

Dear Sir,

I sent a verbal message to your office some days since, requesting you to transfer to The Liberator a notice of the Middlesex County anti-slavery meeting which is to be held in Groton on the 28th inst. I cannot assure myself that the message was ^{last week} delivered, as the Liberator for this town have not come.

Will you be so kind as to set the matter right, if it has not already been done. The notice has appeared in Hallett's Paper, & in the Spectator of last Wednesday.

I hope you may find it convenient to attend the Middlesex meeting. We want much to see you here, also Thompson. We are all "Garrisonites," that is, all who are antislavery. We have little to entice you except green fields, & pure air, but our hills are as verdant, & our atmosphere as pure, as can be found on the globe.
Mr. May has engaged to come - he must not disappoint us.
I hope Mr. Thompson will be here - many are expecting him

With much esteem

Amos Farnsworth

Handwritten text in the top right corner, possibly a date or reference.

Main body of handwritten text, appearing as several lines of cursive script across the page.